

Memorial Book

In Loving Memory of

Christopher Allen Morell

(January 27, 2006 - January 11, 2008)

"Treasure every moment you have with those you love! For you do not know what tomorrow will bring!"

Sheri Morell

This memorial website was created to remember our dearest son Christopher Allen Morell who was born in Murfreesboro TN on January 27, 2006 and passed away on January 11, 2008. You will live forever in our memories and our hearts.

Christopher was born a very happy child. Having Christopher was the most joyful time of my life. On January 11th 2008 I received that most dreaded call that all parents dread, that Christopher had been hit by a truck. Hearing those words, it felt as though my heart was broken in two. My husband picked me up @ work and we went to Stonecrest Medical Center where they were trying to stabilize him. when we arrived he was on a ventilator and not looking good.

The doctor allowed us to go back and see him and they explained that there was major head trauma but they were doing all the could. They explained that they would airlift him to Vanderbilt Children's Hospital. We headed to Vanderbilt and when we arrived they put the whole family in a conference room. When the doctors came they explained that Christopher's heart stopped during flight and they were not able to revive him. I felt like I was in a dream and could not believe what I was hearing. I have never felt such heartache as I have since losing my precious Angel. This website is my way of keeping my baby's memory alive.

Christopher never got to see his second birthday. He died just two weeks shy!

If you would like to write about any memories you might have about Christopher please feel free to do so. You can also light a candle in his memory! We would love for you to leave your memories and feedback! I love seeing how many lives my precious angel! really did touch! He was a special little boy who knew nothing but Love

COME TO ME, ALL YOU WHO LABOR
AND ARE BURDENED AND I WILL GIVE YOU REST
MATTHEW 11:28

THE BROKEN

CHAIN

WE LITTLE KNEW THAT MORNING THAT

GOD WAS GOING TO CALL YOUR NAME.

IN LIFE WE LOVED YOU DEARLY

IN DEATH WE DO THE SAME.

IT BROKE OUR HEARTS TO LOSE YOU,
YOU DID NOT GO ALONE;
FOR PART OF US WENT WITH YOU
THE DAY GOD CALLED YOU HOME.
YOU LEFT US PEACEFUL MEMORIES,
YOUR LOVE IS STILL OUR GUIDE,
AND THOUGH WE CANNOT SEE YOU,
YOU ARE ALWAYS AT OUR SIDE.

OUR FAMILY CHAIN IS BROKEN
AND NOTHING SEEMS THE SAME,
BUT AS GOD CALLS US ONE BY ONE,
THE CHAIN WILL LINK AGAIN.

"I'll lend to you for a little while,
a child of mine", He said,
"For you to love the while he lives,
And mourn when he is dead?"

It may be six or seven years,

Or twenty-two or three,

But will you, till I call him back,

Take care of him for Me?

Hell bring his charms to gladden you,

And should his stay be brief,

You'll have his lovely memories,

As solace for your grief.

I cannot promise he will stay,

Since all from earth return,

But there are lessons taught down there,

I want this child to learn.

I've looked the wide world over

In my search for teachers true,

And from the throngs that crowd life's lanes

I have selected you.
Now will you give him all your love,
Not think the labor vain,
Nor hate Me when I come to call,
To take him home again.
I fancied that I heard them say,
"Dear Lord, Thy will be done.
For all the joy this child will bring,
The risk of grief we'll run.
We'll shelter him with tenderness,
We'll love him while we may,
And for the happiness we've known,
We'll forever grateful stay.
But should the angels call for him,
Much sooner than we planned,
Well brave the bitter grief that comes,
And try to understand"

Hello

October 3, 2008

Hi Sheri,

Just got your email where you updated the site.. It's very beautiful you've really done a great job creating this memorial site.. It's very Beautiful !! I love the song you have playing in the background it's really encouraging, and very true Goodbye is never the end it's only for a little while If we just keep our eyes uplifted on Jesus and keep our hearts as pure as a child you'll get to see him again I'm sure of that what greater Love and Promise that our Father shares with his Children. May God Bless You through whatever trials your going through.. Take Care Always and May The Love of The Lord Always be in Your Heart

Praying for You

September 8, 2008

Dear Sheri & John,

I can't imagine what you are going through. I know it's been especially tough once the shock of it all wore off. Please know you are in my thoughts and prayers. I pray for strength and comfort for you everyday. No parent should ever have to bury a child. I find comfort knowing Christopher is with Jesus and I know I will see him again, in God's time. Please know I am here for you when you need me.

Love, Auntie Joanie

Thinking of you

August 30, 2008

My thoughts and prayers are with all who love and miss dear Christopher, especially to his Mommy and Daddy. Your precious little son is just adorable and his beautiful smile captured my heart instantly. You have created a beautiful tribute to honor your precious Son's memory. As I read Christophers story it broke my heart, I wish there was something I could say to ease your heartache, I only pray that you find some comfort knowing that others care and will always remember Christopher.

God Bless, Edwina Mitchell.

The one on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more open, showing more of its petals. The roses are rendered in a slightly darker shade than the background, giving them a subtle, embossed appearance.

Memories

all the gray you turned into colors...

Bridget James

I have one memory in particular that not only stands out but everytime i think about it ...i get this really goofy looking grin on my face! It was shortly after i met Christopher. I was throwing a birthday party for one of my friends and earlier on in the day i wanted to meet up with some other friends and hang out before i left for the party. I called John earlier in the week if he would like to attend the party and if he could take me to pick up the cake which he kindly agreed to. Anyway... i wanted to hang out with some other friends before i left for the party so i called John and asked if he and Christopher would like to get out for awhile before doing the mentioned events and as short notice as it was he said ok. Well we finally meet up with some other friends of ours and as i walked up i noticed that my cousin misty was trying to get Christopher to come to her but he wouldn't , but as i approached Christopher was then asked if he wanted to come see me and the next thing i know is that he was reaching for me to hold him!! I was shocked because everyone there had a longer history with him than i did and it was only the second time that i had met him. I have never forgotten that feeling of being wantedit was the most amazing feeling in the world. I will never ever forget that day!!

Bridget

Auntie Kelly

I had the blessing and opportunity to meet Christopher last Christmas. I remember he would run around the table with his cousins in the kitchen over and over again. We all had to prepare food in the kitchen so we just walked around them because there was no sense in asking them to stop. They wouldn't and they were having so much fun. We all went to Opryland to see the lights and Christopher sat in the back seat of the van with his cousins and talked on the way. My sons asked me what he was saying and we didnt know but everyone thought it was pretty funny trying to figure it out. I also learned how talented and fast he was at spotting drinks from across the room and sweeping them off the coffee table at Grandma and Grandpa's house. I still think of him whenever I see Thomas. I am so glad we came to visit when we did. Can't wait to visit you again with our Heavenly Daddy.

Joshua Bertsch

The only actual memory I have is the week he was born, he was so cute and little i just wish i could have been able to see him again... When I held him I could feel that he was part of my family We love u

Mommy

If tears could build a stairway,

And memories were a lane,

I would walk right up to heaven

And bring you back again.

No farewell words were spoken,

No time to say goodbye,

You were gone before I knew it

And only God knows why.

My heart still aches in sadness.

And secret tears still flow,

What it meant to lose you, Christopher,

No one will ever know.

Since you'll never be forgotten,

we pledge to you today,

A special place within our hearts

where you will always stay.

With much love from Mom and Dad

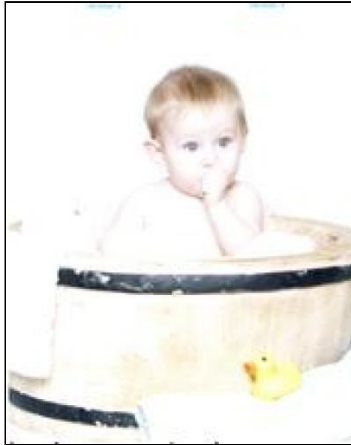

Peggy Howse

One of my fondest memories of Christopher, is when Sheri would come over to visit and I would pick Christopher up and He would look at himself in the mirror and he would have the biggest grin on his face and he would wave at his reflection.

Kristin

Christopher- I am so glad Jason and I got to meet you. We had such a good time when you and Mommy showed us around where you lived. You were such a peanut with an amazing smile. Jason loved you so much, and he loved playing with you feeling like the big "cousin". Your daddy took him to his work and saw the big trucks you liked so much. I am glad I got so many pictures of you with Gramma and grampa and mommy and daddy. Take care of Tommy and make sure you keep him company as he will miss his own kids. Make sure you always smile down on mommy and daddy and know you are missed so much little guy. Thank you for letting me know you- thank you for being your mom and dads little angel no matter how brief. You continue to touch peoples lives - Love you Christopher- Kristin and Jason

MOMMY

One memory that is always on my mind is Christopher's love for water. He loved to take baths and play and splash with all his toys. As he got older he would run into the bathroom and straight to the tub on his own. He knew exactly what was going to happen when we went into Mommy and Daddy's bathroom or even Grandma and Grandpa's bathroom. We would also take him to the water park and just let him play. If we even considered trying to leave he would throw a fit. He was not afraid of the water from day one. He just loved it!

MOMMY

missing you with all

Mommy

YOU WILL FOREVER BE IN MY HEART

Sheri (Mommy)

Even though I only had my precious angel for 23 months, those months left me enough memories to last me a laugh time. I will forever remember that sweet sweet smile and awesome laugh. He was such an awesome child that really didn't need much disciplining. One of my sweetest memories is when Christopher found his thumb. He was about 3 months old when he started sucking his thumb and it was just so cute. As he got older, sucking his thumb came more when he was really tired and he would have to have his baby bear in hand. He was a some what of a late walker but boy when he finally took his first steps he no longer knew the concept of walking. That child ran pretty much everywhere he went. I am not sure exactly what age he discovered Thomas the train at but it sometimes it seemed as if nothing as mattered. He came up with a nickname for Thomas on his own. We do not know exactly where he got it but he started calling Thomas NANA. As soon as Thomas would come on he would get real excited and started saying NANA, NANA. This past Christmas he got some new Thomas toys, books, clothes and even a child size table. Everything was Thomas. He was so excited Christmas morning. I will never forget that last Christmas. He only had three weeks to enjoy all the Thomas stuff that he received because it was only 3 weeks later that my precious little Angel went to be with Jesus. Thank you for all the wonderful memories that you have left us. I miss and love you Christopher and I know that we will see you again in Heaven.

John Morell (Daddy)

You know, I don't know where to start with memories..I remember a few weeks after him being home from the hospital, coming home from work and wanting to give mom a break, and I took him to change his diaper, and I pulled a wall of wipes instead of "a wipe". I remember how he loved to copy mom and me, with the way figet and him doing it behind my back. He loved the camera, no matter if it was the video, web, or normal he loved it.

One of the funniest things, I was home during the day, and when mom brought him home, he would know I was there by the rescue truck, rather than my truck. He loved to play, and he would play hard with me. (beating up daddy)

If he was talking to you, (of course we could not understand most of what he was trying to say yet,) and you turned away for any reason, (like when mom would ask me something) he would turn your head back to him.

He did in 2 years, what anyone would only hope to do with a lifetime, and that is make a difference, and we will miss him very much.

Grandma

I have so many memories of our precious angel. We spent many hours singing songs about Jesus. How he loved that. We also read lots of books. He loved to hear about Jesus. One Wednesday night, Mama, Grandma, and Christopher were on our way to Church, when Mama turned in the wrong direction. She had another stop to make before we headed to Church. Christopher got very upset because we were going the wrong way. I explained that we were going to Church after Mama ran an errand. After that he stuck his thumb in his mouth and just sat back and waited. How he loved going to Church. He also loved playing in the water. Sometimes, on a warm day, we would take him to the river, and he would sit in the water with Grandpa. How he loved that. He was such a blessing to us. We know we will see him again, and cannot imagine what our loss would be like if we didn't know where he is, and that we will be with him again. How we miss him though. There are not words to express it.

Joan Smartt

I'll never forget coming to the hospital in Murfreesboro and meeting my great-nephew for the first time. He was so tiny and precious and loved. Oh my goodness, how he was loved. Mommy let me hold him for a while and I wanted to take him home with me. I remember him coming to the house one time with Mommy, Daddy, Uncle Mike, Aunt Michelle, Mikala and Mikey. Stacy and Eric were there. Christopher cleared off my coffee table. We put some Cheetos on it and he couldn't eat them fast enough. I followed him to the kitchen. I saw the dog's water bowl at about the same time he did. He beat me to it. How he did it, I'll never know. Another time, I took Kendall's car seat to him, since he had grown enough to use it. He sat in the seat in the living room and didn't want to get out of it. How he loved that 'big boy' carseat. No more riding backwards!!! He was so innocent, so sweet and most of all so loved. He was a very lucky little boy to have such wonderful parents and grandparents. His short life was a happy life. He's still happy and in the arms of Jesus. I'll see you again, in Heaven, little guy. Auntie Joanie loves you and misses you.

Crystal

On the weekends when you would get him in front of the computer with the webcam on so he could talk to auntie Crystal he would smile or laugh I loved watching the light in his eyes and the way he would turn and hug you while we chatted.

The background is a textured, mottled brownish-gold color. In the upper right quadrant, there are two roses. The one on the left is smaller and more tightly curled, while the one on the right is larger and more fully bloomed. The roses are rendered in a soft, painterly style, blending into the background.

Life Story

every hour, every thought, every smile...

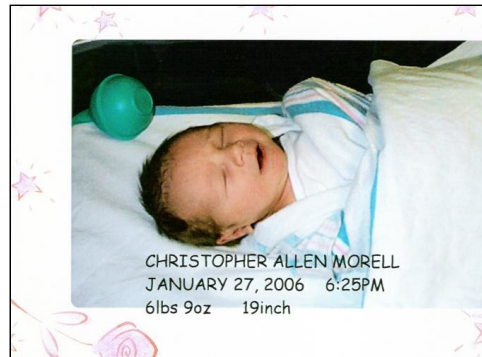

January 27, 2006

Born in MTMC on January 27, 2006.

January 11, 2008

Passed away on January 11, 2008.

June 2, 2008

I got pregnant with Christopher the beginning of June of 2006. John and I had not been married very long but in the end we were so excited about seeing our new son. Christopher was a special kind of child. He turned out to be a social butterfly kind of like his Daddy is. Always wanted to talk to everyone he came in contact with. Of course I won't mention the fact that the majority of time you couldn't understand what he was saying but that is what made him so cute. He loved the camera. Posed everytime we even attempted to take a picture. His first birthday he got his own little birthday cake and we decided to just let him go at it. We put the cake in front of him and he went to town. He had blue icing all over him especially his face. We had to literally change blue poopy diapers for at least a week. Christopher was always such an active child. He was a late walker but from the time he could take a step he was running. He did not know the concept of walk. The doctors were convinced that there was something wrong with him because he was always so small. At a year old he weighed about 16 lbs. There was nothing wrong with him he just was so active. When he was probably about 18 months old he discovered Thomas the Train. Thomas was everything to Christopher and he would through a fit if he didn't get to watch it when he wanted to. I used to put Thomas on on Demand. Christopher was so smart that when I hit the on demand button he knew exactly what I was doing. He would cry if I did not put Thomas on for him. Christopher's two other favorite things to do were Read and go to church. Of course spending time with Grandpa doesn't count because he would pick that over almost anything. (except for Thomas, that seemed to rate highest) Grandpa used to take christopher on the lawnmower when he would cut the grass. Christopher just thought that he was all that. We had a pretty good routine going with him. He would be asleep about 7pm every night except if we were out late which didn't happen much. He would wake up about 6:15 am and I would take him to grandma and grandpa's house where he would stay while I worked. Christopher had a wonderful Christmas of 2007. He got a Thomas table and chairs, thomas books, thomas clothes, not to mention all the movies and tracks he got as well. He got to see his uncle skip, auntie Kelly and his two cousins Login and Christian for the first time ever over the holidays. Unfortunately his life would tragically end about 3 weeks after Christmas and just 2 weeks before his 2nd birthday. On January 11, 2008 Christopher was hit by a pick up truck in front of grandpa and grandma's house. They took him by ambulance to Stonecrest Medical Center where we got to see him for just a few minutes. It did not look good so they were airlifting him to Vanderbilt Childrens Hospital. We had to drive and meet him there. When we arrived, we learned that Christopher's heart stopped beating on the helicopter before ever arriving to the hospital and they were unable to get him back. I miss my baby more than words could ever describe. I want him back with me. The one thing that brings me comfort is knowing that I will see my baby again. He is with Jesus in Heaven and probably keeping the Angels very busy.
